

False Jesus with Parts

Central to my methodology for dealing with parts and integration is for me to do less, and God to do more.

In that process, Jesus is a prominent player – although not exclusively.

What is challenging is the appearance now and then of a false Jesus who preempts the storyline and does innocuous things, that seem interesting, but certainly do not move the ball forward.

When I am suspicious of the "Jesus" we are seeing, I ask the Holy Trinity to strip away disguises and reveal whether this entity is real.

It works and time and again, we are able to reset and go back to the point where the real Jesus was replaced with the false.

The tool works well, but there is a pervasive sense of unsettledness when a false Jesus appears semi-regularly.

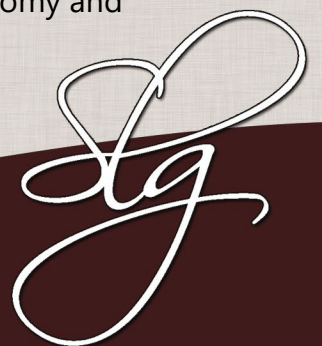

I use a handful of tools to restore order at the root level. The first is the subordination of covenants. If it is a new idea to you, then check the search engine.

Second, I will do a reality check of the Cornerstone in the inner world. If that is fake, then it empowers the false Jesus. The simple test is to see if your spirit is comfortable hanging out there. If they observe it, reference it, know where it is, and don't go there, it is fake!

Recently I ran into a particularly clever little mess.

Remember that certain spiritual streams deal heavily in time. Egyptian cosmology is significantly rooted in the dominion of time.

The Mayans had an extraordinary capacity to use math to understand astronomy and time. Their calendar is still a thing of wonder to anthropologists.

Many of the days of our week are named after Scandinavian pseudo-gods.

Time travel is espoused by the followers of the Kabbalah and Druidism.

This is, of course, only a partial list of all the different groups whose cosmology involves some sort of dominion over time or dominion through time (two separate issues).

Anyway, I connected with a lady who has done a lot of work, over a lot of years, with different ministry teams, and she was still having an occasional intrusion by a false Jesus.

We poked around, found one of those time cosmologies in her generations and figured out (I think!) that the subordination of covenants was being avoided because of time manipulation.

Meaning the critters claimed in their legal system that the original instigator of the covenant was outside of time that was under the covenant with Jesus, therefore the Christian covenant did not undo their power.

Cute, but no cigar.

I invoked the Ancient of Days who existed before any of these baloney cosmologies ever existed, AND the fact that Jesus was the Lamb slain before the foundation of the world (when time began) AND that the lady in question was CHOSEN to be part of the Body of Christ before the foundation of the world (when time began).

Ephesians 1:4ff NKJV . . . just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, to the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He has made us accepted in the Beloved.

In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself, that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth — in Him.

In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, that we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory.

So we delegitimized the entire stable of time travel cosmologies and their claim of special exemptions from the subordination of covenants, then played the subordination of covenants again, this time with Revelation 3:7 about Jesus having the Key of David and what He opens no one can close, etc.

Next we nuked the fake cornerstone and asked for a replacement.

Then my part was done and Jesus put on a show, changing some stuff in her brain (which I did not know to ask for, which is why it was so important for me to stand down) as well as bringing a new cornerstone in a dramatic way.

Time will tell, but no one who witnessed today has much concern about a false Jesus testing the waters again.

So the point of all this is, when a tried and tested principle does not work, don't keep trying the same thing over and over again.

Find out what other principle is being played to seemingly allow the enemy to avoid the consequences of violating the first one.

In this case, some critters decided that hitching a ride in Calvin and Hobbs' transmogrifier would enable them to escape the terms of the Righteous Law of the Universe.

Or not.
